

Travels in Asia Australia and America

Hon of this little work has been to precisely relate, the personal experiences of the author in different parts of our planet. The standpoint which he takes is partially that of a tourist, at the same time offering all the statistical and geographical data he possibly could obtain, and he wishes to be distinctly understood that in making these extensive, long lasting travels, he was not led by any other motive than the riere love for science, nature and art. Though, among explorers, only one of the (bii minores, I found sufficient reward in the honorable mention of my expeditions and the scientific appreciations in the reports of the Gesellschaft fur Erdkunde S ociety for the Enrichment of the Knowledge of the Earth), the Ethnologic Periodical and the lectures of Professor Ooctor Virchow, of (B erlin. Many of the tropical and sub=tropical plants, etc, with which I had supplied some countries in Europe and Africa for acclimatization, thrive well according to statements received, and promise to become a source of revenue.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
