

Fostering Inventiveness in Children

Our books are written for teachers and parents who are interested in fostering invention in children. This book, Fostering Inventiveness in Children, covers young inventors, invention and play, and the psychology of young inventors. Our second book, Invention Friday Curriculum, offers a series of 1-2 hour workshop style lessons that can be taught weekly over a 9-month primary school K-5 curriculum or in after school programs or at home.
