New parent? Grandparent looking after grandchildren under 5? Summer holiday looming? Would you also like to prepare them for school and making sure they hold a pencil correctly, can use scissors and glue, use a bat and ball and are attentive without breaking the bank! Well here are some ideas, both for indoors and outdoors, for you to try. They are enjoyable activities that will not only help your pre-school child develop fully in preparation for school but will be great fun for you to do together. This will make the long school break more fun for both you and your child.
