

You Cant Steal a Gift: Dizzy, Clark, Milt, and Nat

You Cant Steal a Gift is about the impact of American racism on Americas greatest gift to the world of musicjazz. In a work that combines memoir, oral history, and commentary, Gene Lees has crafted minibiographies of four great black musicians whom he knew wellDizzy Gillespie, Clark Terry, Milt Hinton, and Nat King Cole. Lees writes of them, All are men who had every reason to embrace bitterness . . . and didnt.When Lees left Montreal to become the music and drama critic of the Louisville Times in 1955, he was shocked by the racism and segregation he found in the United States. In jazz he found a community of like-minded souls who freely shared their gifts with all lovers of music, regardless of race and condition.
